

DIPLOMA IN MODERN APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY

The background is a vibrant green with a complex, abstract geometric pattern. It features a large, faint wireframe skull in the center, overlaid with several interlocking gears of different sizes. The gears are white with green outlines and contain internal mechanical details. The overall design is modern and technical, suggesting a focus on the mechanics of the mind in psychology.

THE CHARACTERISTICS OF A FULLY FUNCTIONING PERSON

Carl Rogers was an American psychologist and among the founders of the humanistic approach to psychology and the helping professions.

He suggested that Fully functioning people have developed certain characteristics that enable them to effectively self-regulate, manage themselves and embrace their need to grow and improve (Actualising tendency). Some of these key characteristics include:

- i. Openness to Embrace Experience (Good And Bad)
- ii. Receptive and Undefended In Their Ways
- iii. An Ability to Interpret Experiences Maturely
- iv. A Flexible Self-concept and Ability to Adapt and Adjust
- v. The Ability to Form Values Based Upon Ones Experiences
- vi. Being at Peace With One's Flaws and Imperfections
- vii. The Tendency to Openly Embrace New Experiences
- viii. Does Not Need to Distort or Deny Actual Experiences
- ix. Open to Feedback and Prepared to Make Frequent Changes
- x. Lives In Peace and Harmony With Other Peoples Imperfections

Qu) How many of these key characteristics do you possess?
